Message from the CEO

Dear Readers,

Greetings!

We are delighted to present you progress highlights as of mid-February 2023 including a success story of our member in Gandaki Province and recent capacity building initiatives.

We present you the story of Ms. Sharada Devi Poudel, our member from Daldale, Nawalparasi (East) in Gandaki Province who established herself as a successful entrepreneur engaging in dairy cow farming. We are documenting on annual basis, similar success stories of our member/clients from all of our 185 branch offices and invite you to visit our website <<https://www.nirdhan.com.np/wp-content/uploads/2023/02/On-the-Path-of-Prosperty-2022.pdf>> for the compilation.

Under capacity building, our focus in training staff on delinquency management continued during this reporting period. The final batch of 103 Accountants/Assistants from the Branch Offices under Bardibas, Bhairahawa, Birgunj and Kathmandu Regional Offices were covered on 17 February 2023.

The disbursement under CSR and CP activities continued during the reporting period. So far in this FY 2079/80, we have provided maternity allowance to 1,551 members (totaling NPR 3,028,800); critical illness relief to 181 members (totaling NPR 1,675,000); and disaster relief to 325 members (totaling NPR 1,242,000). Likewise, we facilitated settlement of 1,112 insurance claims of the members amounting to a total of NPR 100,251,660. Recently, we have also organized a free health check-up camp for the members.

Our service coverage and outreach in terms of the number of Centres as well as clients suggested business consolidation during the reporting month. There is an increase in the number of Centres and active clients but the number of loan clients dropped slightly as of mid-February 2023.

On 24th February 2023, we convened successfully our 24th Annual General Meeting, which passed unanimously the regular and special agenda items including that on raising the authorized, issued and paid-up capital as well as elected four new directors-two each representing the promoter and public shareholders.

Janardan Dev Pant
